

JOB Talend

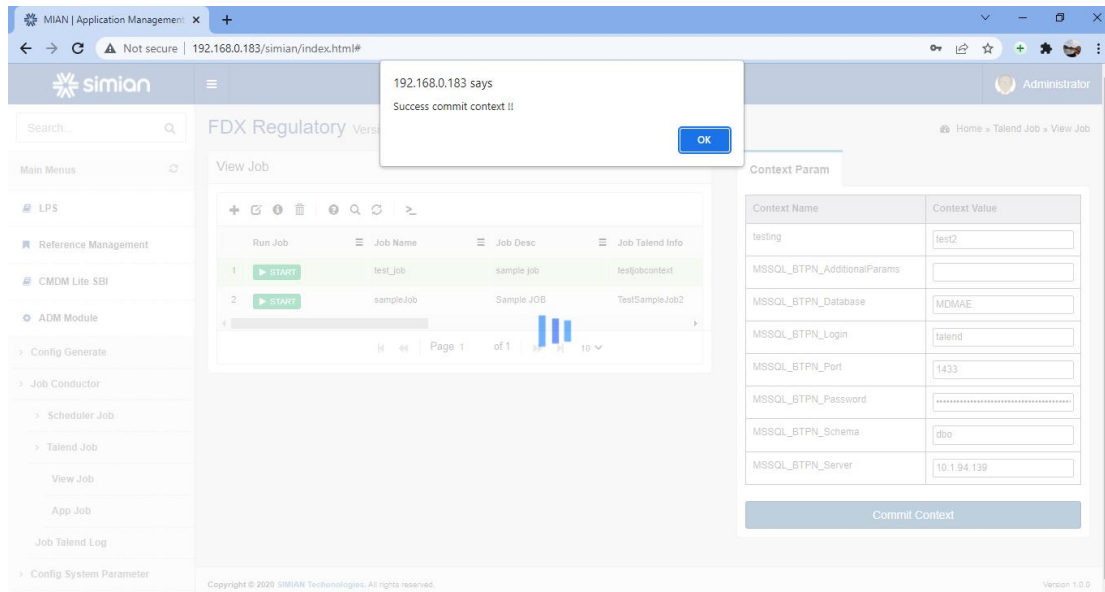

View Job Talend

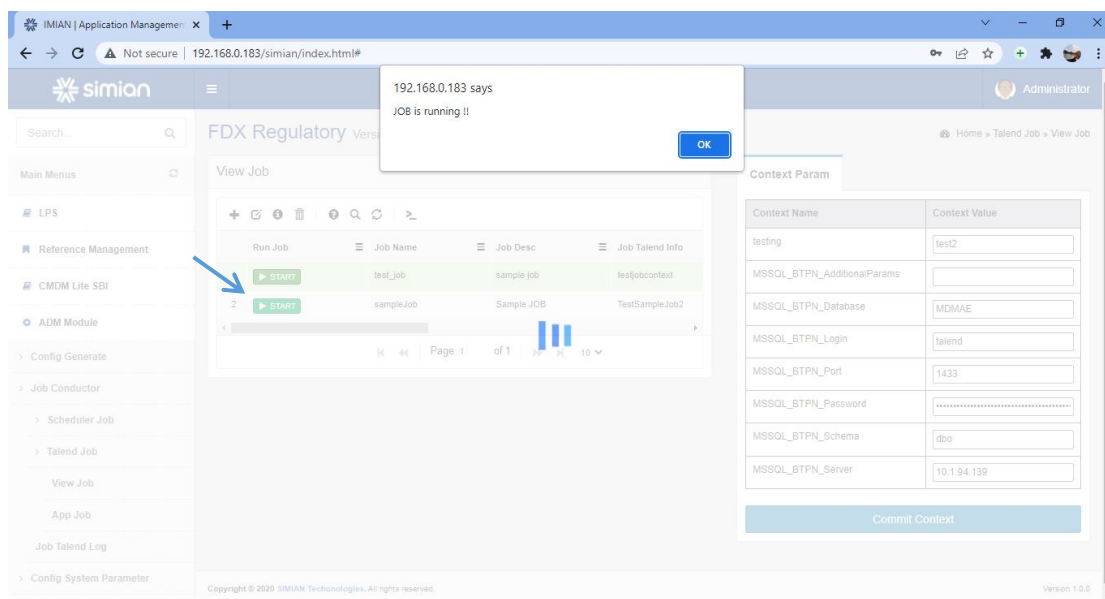

After we select the row view job, it will display the details of the context param.

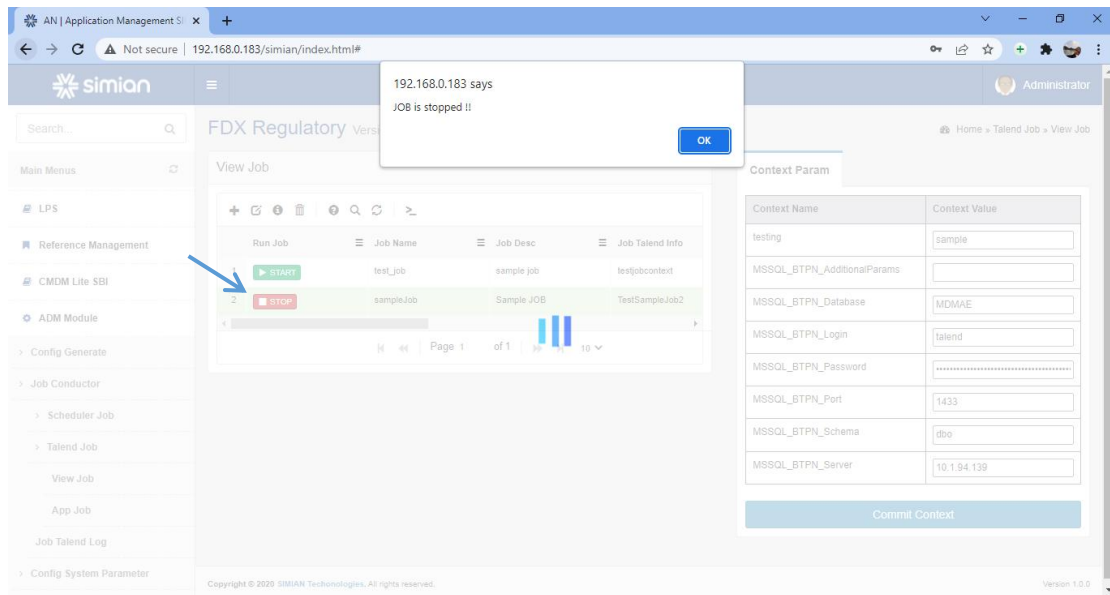

Fill in the context param as needed, after that we can click commit context, a notification will appear as below:

When we want to run a job, we can click the start button, a notification will appear as below:

When we want to stop a running job, we can click the Stop button, a notification will appear as below:

The symbol shown by the arrow is the symbol for uploading zip data. When you click on the symbol data, a file manager will appear as shown below:

